

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75

NEW YORK
DAILY NEWS

FEB 3 1964

COPYRIGHT

By EDWARD O'NEILL

Board of Education President James Donovan, the lawyer who negotiated the Abel-Powers spy swap, tells his story in a book, "Strangers on a Bridge," due out March 20. Chief Court of Appeals Judge Charles S. Desmond wrote the foreword, entitled "Advocacy of Unpopular Causes"—something with which the integration-harassed Donovan can now claim familiarity.